

What people are saying about the GOPACK System™

Users of the system are saying...

"I read GOPACK over the holidays and I am so inspired! My bedroom closet has been tackled and I am well on the way toward making time for me!" Ginny Carson, Owner, Decorum LLC www.decorumllc.com

"I love how the GOPACK addresses more than just the physical clutter in the corners of your house. You touch on the whole person: mind, body and spirit." Robin Berlinsky, Niki Leigh Spa Products, Charleston, SC www.nikileighspa.com

"The GOPACK System offers a simplified approach to the task that overwhelms us all." Pat Thomas, Honolulu, Hawaii

"After reading the GOPACK book, I began purging and didn't stop until everything I ever wanted to get rid of was gone. I no longer have anything in my home that I do not love to look at!" Cathy Brady, Spring Lake, New Jersey

Professional Organizers are saying...

"Short of hiring a professional organizer, the GOPACK System is the best I've ever seen for achieving your organizing goal." Kathleen Schulweis, Ph.D., NAPO Member and Business Coach, Confidence Connections, Los Angeles, California

"The GOPACK really clarifies the meaning and purpose of getting organized. I love that it focuses on organizing as a process and the goal is the end result. People tend to get bogged down by the 'work' of it which really hinders getting that final result." Sean Johnson, Professional Organizer, Organized Bliss, Mt. Pleasant, South Carolina who has appeared on HGTV's Mission Organization.
